CONTROL & RELAY PANELS

These are static micro-controller based auto recloser relay designed to overcome down time from transient faults. These are very compact reliable device consisting of programmable logic of timer and status monitoring. These relays are available with Single shot or Multi-shot operation with various dead times and reclaims time settings.